Council getting set for summer

As spring comes to Elk Point, Town Council is gearing up for summer with plans to hire temporary workers and to construct more soccer fields, while street sweeping and filling the water reservoir are already underway.

Council agreed Monday night to advertise immediately for four workers to fill Summer Temporary Employment Program positions for a four month period. One position will be allocated to administration, one to recreation and two to public works, with all four having a scheduled start date of May 1. The remaining two positions, which can be used as four two-month or 8 one-month positions instead, if required, will be advertised after the Town is advised if any positions have been approved under the Summer Employment Experience Development Grant (SEED).

The development of two additional soccer fields north of the Arena parking lot was studied. Sufficient space is available, as are the necessary posts, and it was determined that the Town's public works department could do the necessary work to put these in place. The local minor soccer program is very popular, and more facilities are needed to accommodate the many youngsters involved.

Pumping water into the Town reservoir got underway April 3, four days later than last year, and will continue until the reservoir is filled near the end of April. The reservoir's water level, before pumping commenced, was 1.4 meters higher than in 1988, and over one million gallons are being pumped in daily, Council was told.

Street sweeping has also commenced, with large accumulations of sand from winter ice eradication at corners noted, and will move to the residential areas once downtown streets are completed.

Council approved the disbursement of $16,000 in Community Recreation Cultural grant funding. Over twice that amount was applied for by community groups. The largest portion will go to the Recreation and Cultural Board, with other groups receiving funds being the Agricultural Society, Curling Club, Scouting Association, Minor Ball, Figure Skating Club, Public Library, Historical Society and Ukrainian Dance Club. Requests from the Golf Club and a group planning a class reunion were turned down.

An amendment to the Tourism Action Committee Bylaw will be prepared for Council's next meet-

Trade Fair time!

Long months of planning are now at an end, and Elk Point's Second Annual Trade Fair is all set to open at 3:00 p.m. this Friday.

Agricultural Society spokesperson Charlene Baker says that over half of the 89 exhibitors will be taking part for the first time this year, and that there is truly "something for everyone".

Displays range from taxidermy and sport outfitting for the outdoors enthusiasts, to fashions and beauty products for the ladies, to seed, chemicals and livestock equipment for the farmers.

A food fair will once again deal with appetites sharpened by long walks to view the displays, and a free pancake breakfast on Saturday morning will be hosted by Vogel's UFA.

Entertainment will again feature Rob Davidson's well trained working dogs, the talents of the Elk Point Wunder Dogs a pet show, and several fashion shows. Native and modern dancers, a skipping team and the Prairie Sage band are new additions to the entertainment lineup. Radio LW will give live radio coverage of the event.

Trade Show hours are 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, and 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

See You At The Fair!

Cancer drive underway

Elk Point's 1989 Cancer Crusade got underway last week with the sale of bundles of glowing golden daffodils at the Co-op Store by a series of dedicated volunteers. The spring blossoms are a symbol of hope that this dread disease, which strikes people of all ages and from all walks of life, can be beaten.

Last year's crusade, the first to be held in Elk Point, more than met its goal, organizer Brenda Patroch said, adding that more donations were collected here than in some much larger communities. This year, the Elk Point group hopes to collect at least $2500.

Your donation can help save lives--give generously when your local canvasser calls.

Promotion at top of Chamber agenda

Promotion of Elk Point, its amenities and attractions was the mainstay of last Wednesday's Chamber of Commerce agenda.

The Chamber has been considering a promotional video for some time, and has more recently talked about a slide presentation as a less expensive alternative for use until production of a video could be undertaken. Elk Point Public Library has put together this type of slide show for promotion of the library and the services it offers, and Library Board Chairperson Adele Mandryk brought this to the meeting. This gave Chamber members both an insight into the library and its operations, and an idea of what a valuable promotional tool a presentation of this sort can be. The Library Board recently showed this series of slides to Town Council, while encouraging them to take part in the soon-to-be-formed Northeast Library System. Ms Mandryk indicated that the cost of the Library's presentation had been approximately $100.

Sid Holthe reported that the videotape of Elk Point he was filming last fall is still in the works, and when it is completed, a copy will be placed in the library for public viewing. He hopes to include interviews with representatives of all groups and organizations in the tape. Holthe noted that he hopes that once the Chamber and Town Council have seen his video, they may be encouraged to invest in a professionally produced video for promotional purposes.

Another way of promoting the area is through the printed word, and Billie Milholland reported on her latest findings from Rose Country Communications, who print brochures and postcards. She expected to talk to other postcard manufacturers during her trip to the Tourism Industry Of Alberta conference in Medicine Hat, April 6-10, and expects to have prices on both postcards and brochures by the April 19 meeting.

The Chamber is still looking for photos for use on the postcards. These can be mailed to Box 639, Elk Point, or dropped off at the Lakeland Review.

Long delayed good news, in the form of a $250 tourism event promotion grant for the 1988 Anniversary Celebrations through the Lakeland Tourist Association, was announced at the meeting.

LADIES OF THE ROYAL PURPLE — Attending the 1989 District Meeting included (l-r): HRL Alice Miskiw, Two Hills; DD Mary Bochon; Supreme Pianist Elaine Hennel; HRL Lois Sharek, Elk Point; Newly Elected DD Mary Karbashewski; HRL Dolores Wowk, Myrnam and HRL Alice Hovelkamp, St. Paul.

OORP hosts District 17

Ladies of the Order of Royal Purple lodges in Two Hills, St. Paul and Myrnam visited their sister lodge in Elk Point last Sunday, April 9, for the Annual Meeting of District 17.

Following greetings from His Worship Dr. Bruce Kleeberger, Mayor of Elk Point, Exalted Ruler Lawrence Pidluzny of the Elk Point BPOE, and Elk Point Honored Royal Lady Lois Sharek, the Opening Ceremony was performed by the drill team and officers of the Elk Point Lodge No. 269. The ladies were then welcomed by District Deputy Mary Bochon.

A solemnly beautiful touch was added to the afternoon by the Draping of the Charter, by the Elk Point Lodge, as all remembered the departed members of their lodges.

St. Paul Lodge No. 275 conducted the initiation ceremony for two new members of the Elk Point Lodge, Olga Capjack and Florence Demchuk, and also performed the thought-provoking Pansy Ceremony.

A well-executed OORP Drill was the contribution of the Myrnam Lodge No. 242, showing the results of much practice on the exacting floor work.

Two Hills Lodge No. 183 led the entire group in a rousing Sunshine March. Each Lodge presentation was followed by a report by their Honored Royal Lady on the past year's activities and achievements.

Following an enjoyable coffee break, the ladies dealt with the business portion of the meeting, studying and voting on proposed new rules, and agreeing on an advertisement to be placed in the 1989 National Convention booklet.

Supreme Lodge representative, Supreme Pianist Lady Elaine Hennel, dedicated her portion of the program to the need for publicity and promotion of each lodge in its community. 'The best publicity we have is you, the members,' she said, urging the lodges to 'get something going' to focus attention on themselves. Her own lodge, in Stettler, Alberta, has sponsored a 'Youth of the Year' contest, which was covered and supported by the local newspaper, radio and television, with the winner then nominated for the Alberta Junior Citizen awards. Whatever means of publicity is chosen, Lady Hennel said, it is most important that the members 'aren't scared to go out and sell it.'

The election of a new District Deputy was next on the agenda, with this honor going to PHRL Mary Karbashewski of the Myrnam Lodge.

Committee reports were given, with the hosting Elk Point Lodge having the largest percentage of their membership in attendance, and congratulations extended to all four historians for their well kept records of lodge activities.

Supreme Pianist Lady Hennel brought greetings from Supreme Honored Royal Lady Margaret Nelson and her team, urging each OORP member to practice positive thinking and to expect the best. 'We must approach the new decade with enthusiasm and energy...to prepare for the 21st century,' she concluded.

Several draws were made, with a handmade tea set made by Lady Stella Blazenko and donated by DD Mary Bochon won by Lady Regina Proskiw, a doll wall hanging made by HRL Lois Sharek going to Lady Leona Ewanchuk, a basket of beauty needs won by Lady Elsie Dach, and a second basket going to Lady Goldie Foerster.

Entertainment to wrap up the afternoon was provided by the agile and talented youngsters of the Bonnyville Skipperoos, under the direction of Alphie Hurtubise, who performed a number of skilled skipping routines to music ranging from a Texas Line Dance to a Cancan. Two local vocalists, Debbie Lawrence and Mathilda Fergher, offered melodious musical selections as the ladies were seated for a sumptuous banquet.

Banquet speeches were brief and entertaining in nature, with special recognition given to Ladies Anne Buck, Olive Berg, Florence McGinnis and Pearl Zarowny, all of whom are celebrating their diamond jubilees this year, along with the OORP Lodge of Canada.

ing, following a request from the committee that they be enabled to select a vice-chairman for their group, as this had not been provided for in the original by-law.

A claim for damages caused by the flooding of a business premises during the spring thaw, when runoff from the street entered the building, will be studied by the Utilities Committee, as will a request by a homeowner to trade a portion of a lot which is currently used as a lane for a slice of Town property abutting another area of that lot.

Playground signs will be installed on 52 Avenue in the vicinity of Markstad Park, in response to a request by a concerned resident.

Special meetings have been planned by Council to discuss the final details of the 1989 budget, to discuss and review policies with the FCSS Board, and to undertake the Vision 20 / 20 planning exercise.

Who do we appreciate

One, two, three, four, who are we for? Elk Point, Elk Point, RAH! RAH! RAH!

Five, six, seven, eight, who do we appreciate? Our volunteers, the best by far!

This is Volunteer Appreciation Week, seven short days in which we are reminded of all the hours spent by unpaid and often unappreciated labor to make our town and its surrounding area a better place to live.

Just last week, at the Annual Ratepayer's Meeting, the Council representative to the Library Board reported over 800 hours of volunteer labor recorded at the library over the past year. Eight hundred hours...that's one hundred 8-hour days, twenty 5-day weeks, five 20-day months of volunteer time...generously donated to JUST ONE good cause.

This week, we read that the Cancer Crusade is on again. Last year, a few devoted volunteers exceeded their goal in the first fundraising drive for the Cancer Society to be held in Elk Point. This year, they are back again, and are aiming even higher.

The last week of April is Save The Children Week. The Elk Point Branch of Cansave has even been mentioned in international publications in view of their devotion to the cause of helping the children in less fortunate areas to survive and to obtain an education. One unique part of this group is that young people are included in the fundraising projects.

There are many other fundraising drives, for the Heart Fund, Red Cross, Arthritis Society, and more. Somehow, enough volunteers are always found to go out and knock on doors for these causes. Somehow, the help is always given.

Many of the activities in communities like Elk Point are spearheaded by volunteers. Look at the countless projects undertaken by the local clubs. These individuals are not the least afraid of hard work, if it will raise money for community projects. Volunteers do everything from running weekly bingos to the physical labor of building halls, arenas and other facilities, organizing the trade fair to administrating winter and summer sport programs for our youngsters, from hand stitching quilts to putting on pancake breakfasts.

Certainly, all this work could be done by paid labor--if, in fact, the vast amount of funds required could be found to do so. But there is no way it would be done any better than by those who are dedicated to their cause and who give it their time, their strengths and their personal best efforts.

Volunteers--you're the greatest!

National museum of civilization

By Irene Magnusson

Sometimes we see pictured buildings of weird and wonderful shape and design - in comic books, science fiction mags and so forth. But we really needn't look for fictional pictures - we have such buildings, right here in Canada. One such only as far away as the Kehewin School.

A new one, by the same master designer, is the National Museum of Civilization, opening in June of this year.

The National Museum of Civilization design was awarded to Douglas Joseph Cardinal, in 1983, work commenced in 1984, and the finish was to have been in 1988, and perhaps it was, but the opening will be this year. I'm sure the transfer of all those thousands of artifacts was a tremendous job.

The history of this museum is a long one, beginning way back in 1841, a continuation of a plan to preserve the natural history and geology of "the province of Canada", when Queen Victoria granted 1500 pounds for a survey to collect and record geological, archaelogical and biological materials. In 1877, the scope was broadened, to include botanical, zoological and ethnographic specimens and artifacts.

The project grew. By 1911 the collections were housed in a large and ornate building, the Victoria Memorial Museum, affectionately refered to as the "castle". In September, 1988, we visited the Victoria Memorial museum, in it's last weeks open. It was closing to allow moving the many, many articles to their new home in the new museum. To continue the history:

When, in 1916, fire destroyed most of the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, the contents of the Victoria Memorial Museum were all packed away, to allow the business of Parliament to be conducted in the "castle", and there they remained, in storage, until 1920.

In 1927, Parliament created the National Museum of Canada, together with other departments, but it finally became a separate entity in 1950.

Later, other museums (Canadian War Museums, National Galleries, National Museum of Natural Sciences, National Museum of Science and Technology (and Aeronautical Collection)) all were lumped together, forming, by 1984, one of the largest museums in the world.

The design for the new building to house the National Museum of Civilization, was awarded to Cardinal, an Albertan. Born at Red Deer, Alberta, in 1934, he was the eldest of a family of eight, his father a Wildlife Warden half Blackfoot, his mother a nurse. He went to school in Red Deer, later entered UBC, in 1953, but was requested to leave in his second year, as too radical and undesirable.

He went to Mexico, worked and traveled, until 1956, when he entered the University of Texas, from which he graduated with honors in 1963. He returned to Red Deer, where he commenced work with the firm of Bissel and Holman. His first accepted design as an architect was the round Guloien House, at Sylvan Lake. Later, he designed St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church at Red Deer, a beautiful building and termed 'his best.'

Cardinal employed computors, to design the curves his buildings abound in, to calculate his needs, one of the first in Canada to do so. Other buildings in Alberta bearing Cardinal's distinctive stamp are the college at Grand Prairie, and the school at Kehewin Reservation, with its curves and compelling 'difference.'

This grand new building, which will house the National Museum of Civilization, was allotted to the Province of Quebec, and is situated across the Ottawa River, in Hull. A long, curved, undulating structure, it is unique and outstanding. It will open with a resounding splash on June 29, 1989.

We viewed it from the parking lot and walkway at the rear of the Parliament Buildings, in Ottawa, when visiting last September. The next time I go visiting in that area I hope to wander through its halls and along its curving walkways. I'm sure I will thrill, as will many, many others, to view in such dramatic surroundings, the collected history of our fascinating country.

I hope, when you view this spectacular building, either in person, on paper, or on a television screen, that you'll try to be impressed and proud that its design creator is a product of our own Alberta - moreover, he is at least part Native, and has produced something spectacular that will become famous around the world. And isn't that great?

"Blue" songs

By Irene Magnusson

It seems to me everyone likes a bit of a brain-teaser now and then. Our Class tried this Quizz a few weeks back, but we only spent a few minutes on it - so didn't come up with very long lists. A little more time wracking the old brain, and looking in a few places conjured up a much longer list. Why don't YOU try it: How many Songs (or musical selections) do you know of with the word "BLUE" in the title?

Come on, give it a try - you don't have to remember the tune, just list the title, if it has BLUE in it. Next week, I'll give you my list, and if you have any that I didn't get, let me know. No Prizes - just the challenge!

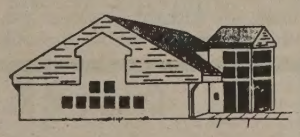
What's news at the library?

When you are at the Elk Point Trade Fair, April 14, 15, 16, stop by the Elk Point Public Library's booth and visit us. Support the library by treating yourself at our snack bar. Enter our book draw and see the display of library material. Discarded library books will be on sale, $0.10 for pocket books and $0.25 for hard cover books. A limited number of Elk Point Pins will be available for sale for $1.50.

In honor of National Book Festival Week, the library has proclaimed Amnesty Week, April 17 to the 22nd. If you have outrageously overdue books, cast away your embarrassment and financial worries and return overdue library material with no fines during this week.

Are you interested in walking for fun and fitness? Come to a meeting at 7 p.m., April 19 in the Elk Point Public Library to determine if there is interest in forming a support group.



NEW BOOKS

"Ken Mitchell Country" by Ken Mitchell - A collection of stories filled with life and laughter about prairie life.

"China Men" by Maxine Hong Kingston - This book is woven from memory, myth, and fact ... a journey into the hearts and minds of Chinese men in America: The grandfather who slaved on the railroad, the father who danced down Fifth Avenue and the son who returned to China.

"The Best of Times" by Trent Frayne - A book about the last fifty years where Canadians watched tall achievements and memorable personalities in sports. The Best of Times brings together some 170 photographs, many in color, that capture the excitement of modern Canadian sports history.

"Busy Beaver" by Barbara Brownell - This is a National Geographic book with photographs and text that introduces the physical characteristics and habits of the beaver.

"The Birth of Nanabosho" by Joseph Mclellan - In this Indian story, two children visit their grandparents to hear the legend of how Nanabosho was born into this world.

"The Canadian Children's Treasury" by Janet Lunn - This beautifully illustrated book is written by Canada's best-known children's author. It contains poems, classics historical fiction and fantasy.

A new music cassette by Pat Benatar is "Wide Awake in Dreamland".

Red Cross meets

By Irene Magnusson

The Elk Point Branch of Red Cross held their regular April meeting, on Monday, April 3, at 2:00 p.m. in Violet McFadyen's home.

Nine members were present, as chairman Violet McFadyen called to order. Minutes were read by secretary Margaret Modin. The group has eleven paid-up members. Canvassing has been in progress in the past month, and is nearing completion. A detailed report will be given at the up-coming Regional (Zone) meeting, which will be in Lindbergh, sometime in the coming month or so, date will be announced.

Again, McFadyen asked all members to keep track of their volunteer hours of work, for Red Cross, for the coming year. Forms were handed out to record hours worked, and should include meetings, canvassing, and craftwork, such as knitting, making quilts, etc.

McFadyen and Myrna Fox had put a quilt onto the frame in McFadyen's basement. This was one of those donated (and made) by Violet Smith. Some of the members came early and did some tying, and were able to finish tying the quilt before going home. The Branch has several quilts on hand, and these are for sale, at any time, by contacting Mrs. McFadyen, proceeds of course go to Red Cross work, at home or abroad. Some quilts are used for emergency relief.

Hazel Hannah volunteered to wash and press some material for future use. Magnusson and McFadyen confirmed that they would make every effort to attend the Annual Red Cross Convention, in Calgary, in June. The regular May meeting will be replaced by the Regional meeting. Next meeting will be June 5th, at McFadyen's house, same time.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank everyone who attended and the Women who prepared our Mixed Shower at Lindbergh Windsor Club.

Thank you for the "beautiful gifts" and the great time!

Sincerely,
Brent and Carrie

Spring into golf at the Golf and Country Club

By Bev Bespalko

Once again, it is time to bring out the golf clubs, polish them up, or possibly invest in a new set--a better one--as you will be a better golfer this year. We always say, 'Next year...' Well, here it is--the 1989 Golfing Season.

Some of us have been ahead of the game. We have some new faces on the Elk Point Golf and Country Club Executive. Ed Soldan is still our President, thanks, Ed! Bev Bespalko is once again the Secretary, and yes, our new Treasurer this year is Tom Holliday, while Tim Holliday has taken the position of Vice President. The Board of Directors is still Rodger McLaughlin, Phil Shankowski, Clem Johnson, Steve Shmyr, Dave Yake, Michael Habiak and Fred Lorenson.

Once again the membership fees have remained the same as in the 1988 season: Family, $100, Single, $65, Junior, $30 and Senior, $45. So if you plan to golf a fair amount you can purchase your membership at the local clubhouse beginning May 1. Otherwise, a daily green fee will cost $5.

The indoor bathroom facilities and water facilities should be in full operation by the end of May. Great!

Construction of a new storage shed will begin this spring. This shed will be 30 feet by 36 feet and will house all the fairway equipment.

The Clubhouse will also see a full-time manager for this new golfing season. This means that the Clubhouse will be open to the golfers on a more regular basis for their convenience. There will also be summer students working on the course, so watch for them when you tee off.

This year, if you forget your clubs at home, or just would like a try at the game, you will be able to rent a set of clubs for the round. The club is purchasing four 7-piece sets of clubs.

We hope to see a great golfing season ahead of us this year, and we'll all par the course. Good game!

Ukrainian Dance Club

By Margaret Bayduza

On March 18, the Elk Point and District Ukrainian Dance Club was invited to put on a show for the Elk Point Minor Hockey Association's provincial tournament supper. We put on 2 half hour shows.

On March 22, groups 1 and 2 were invited to perform at Heritage Lodge. They also put on a short show.

April 2 was the Annual Cheremosh Kiddie Show at the Jubilee Auditorium. We opened the show with our Pryveet, which involved all our dancers. Group 4 also did a Bukovanian dance later in the show.

On the weekend of April 14, 15, and 16, the dance club will be travelling to Saskatchewan for the Prince Albert Optimist Ukrainian Dance Festival. We will be entering almost all our dances in the competition.

Our annual spring concert has been set for 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, May 3. Our tenth anniversary show will be better than ever. We will have many duets and solos, and five different regions. We will also have our adult dance group's first performance. We hope to see many of you turn out.

Pay Phone Coinless Access — No coins are required to contact the operator (dial 0), or information (dial 411).

New Dialing Instructions — Coins must be deposited before placing a local call instead of when the called party answers. No coins are required to call the operator (dial 0). Please read the instruction card on the pay phone.

Repair Service — If you require telephone repair please call 611.

Directory Service — Please call 411 to obtain directory assistance.

Government department helps consumers

They're from the government, and they're there to help you.

Dwayne M. Brandly, Operations Supervisor at the Edmonton Regional Office of Consumer and Corporate Affairs, was in Elk Point recently to explain just how his department can help to create a community of informed consumers.

The purpose of the department, which was formed in 1976, is to promote the development of orderly and responsible business practices, and to aid and educate consumers.

One of the four main areas of service is the investigation of complaints made by consumers. This includes the administration of the Unfair Trade Practices Act, the Consumer Credit Transactions Act, the Direct Sales Cancellation Act, Prepaid Contracting Act, and acts dealing with insurance, real estate, public auctions and landlord-tenant relations. Brandly said that very few complaints come from Elk Point, 'where the businesses are obviously aware of the need for good customer relations.

Problems with direct sales people and prepaid contracting have the most impact in rural Alberta, he added. 'Everything from light bulbs to barn painting' is sold door-to-door, and Brandly cautioned that potential customers should ask these sales people for an identity card showing that the company they represent is licenced by Consumer and Corporate Affairs.

For those having second thoughts about door to door transactions, he reminds consumers that they have four clear days, not including Sundays, to cancel a sale for any reason. The best thing to do, in that case, is to phone the company and then send a registered letter confirming the telephone conversation, making sure to keep a copy of the letter.

Regarding the Prepaid Contracting Act, Brandly noted that anyone taking up-front money must be licenced with his department, and must also be bonded. He is concerned that the recent announcement of senior citizens' homeowner grants may spark a rash of complaints in this regard, as some salesmen seeking to sell home improvements tend to confuse and even intimidate seniors 'to the point where they give them a deposit cheque to get them out of the house.' Seniors can call on his department for assistance in getting out of these arrangements, Brandly said, 'and we'll do all we can to help them.'

Consumer and Corporate Affairs also regulates fundraising campaigns under the Public Contributions Act. Those wishing to conduct a campaign must apply 30 days before the campaign is scheduled to start, and must be accountable for the disbursement of the funds collected.

Business licensing and corporate registration also is under the jurisdiction of the department. While all types of businesses do not require provincial licences, those who do also require a licence from their local jurisdiction, in most cases.

Education of consumers is a main role of the department, which offers seminars to groups, businesses, chambers of commerce, etc. on a number of topics. Explanations of pertinent legislation, ways to avoid problems, licencing, business scams and frauds, and ways of handling complaints are included in the seminars.

Family financial counselling and debt counselling is yet another facet of the department's operations, either by court order or on the initiative of the financially troubled individual. The department administers the orderly payment to debts for those sent by the courts, protects them from garnishees and seizures, and disburses payments to creditors. Regarding those who come for individual help, Brandly says that 'coming to us for help is the greatest step they can take.'

Are you ready to quit smoking?

How To Tell When It's Time To Stop

Ask a confirmed smoker if he or she enjoys smoking. Chances are, the answer will be "yes". Then ask the same person if he or she would like to quit. You'll probably get the same answer - yes. Opinion polls show that the overwhelming majority of smokers would like to quit smoking, but don't yet feel prepared to "kick the habit." Fortunately, wanting to quit is the first, and perhaps the most important step to becoming smokefree for life. If you, a friend, or loved one, smokes but would like to stop, consider the following information and see if perhaps you are ready to stop smoking and start living a healthier, longer life.

YOUR HEALTH

One would think that the health risks of smoking would be enough to motivate anyone to stop, but the fact is, they aren't. Since most smoking related diseases - emphysema, cancer, heart disease, stroke and numerous other life-threatening conditions - may take years to surface, smokers tend to believe that "it won't happen to me." Unfortunately, it can, and very likely will unless you quit while you're ahead and allow your body to heal itself. The good news is that many of the effects of smoking are reversible with time.

YOUR LOVED ONES

It's true that you should quit smoking for yourself - not because others are pressuring you to quit. If you feel as if you were "conned" into quitting, it's more likely that you'll return to your smoking behavior in the future. But, the love and concern of those who care for you may prove to be a motivation to quit. Do you want to set a good example for your children? Do you want to grow old with your mate? Do you want to have a vital, healthy life or a slow and debilitating death? Do you want to live to see your children grow up? All of these can be considerations that can help you in your resolve to quit smoking. If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, you may be ready to quit.

YOUR PEACE OF MIND

Perhaps the most powerful motivation for quitting smoking is the personal "payoff". The feeling of accomplishment that comes with freedom from smoking is unlike anything you are apt to ever experience in your life. You'll gain satisfaction from knowing that you are in control of your health and your life. You'll look better (smoking contributes to premature skin wrinkles), feel better (more stamina and endurance), and you'll have the peace of mind that comes from knowing that you are doing the singlemost important thing you can to improve the quality and quantity of the years ahead of you. You'll be giving yourself and your loved ones a priceless gift - life.

YOU'RE IN CONTROL

No one can tell you how, when, or why to quit smoking. The decision is yours alone. But, when you consider the benefits you can enjoy from a smokefree life, you're apt to agree with over 33 million ex-smokers - stopping smoking is the best thing you'll ever do for yourself and your health.

Hospital Auxiliary holds meeting

By Irene Magnusson

Due to ice roads, the March Hospital Auxiliary meeting was postponed one week, being held April 3, at 8:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Annual Meeting.

With 12 members present, they heard minutes read. A detailed financial report, delivered by Elsie Oryschuk, was examined and accepted. (Bernie Kozicky has resigned as treasurer, to care for her twins. Congratulations, proud parents!) Canteen activities were reported by Violet McFadyen. All departments are functioning well. A number of slippers were donated.

President Gloria Lecopoy displayed the order of place mats and napkins received, with heart pattern. These were accepted as very nice.

A program on dealing with Volunteers is offered in St. Paul, registrations must be in by April 7th. The Regional Conference in St. Paul earlier was attended by Wasy Elaschuk and Bernie Kozicky. The May Conference will be in Glendon.

Adella Jennissen has taken charge of a program to collect sales UPC's from certain foods, to be exchanged for funds for the Auxiliary. A list may be obtained from her. If many persons collected these, it would soon mount up.

The United Grain Growers have made a $50 donation to the Auxiliary, this was gratefully accepted by the group.

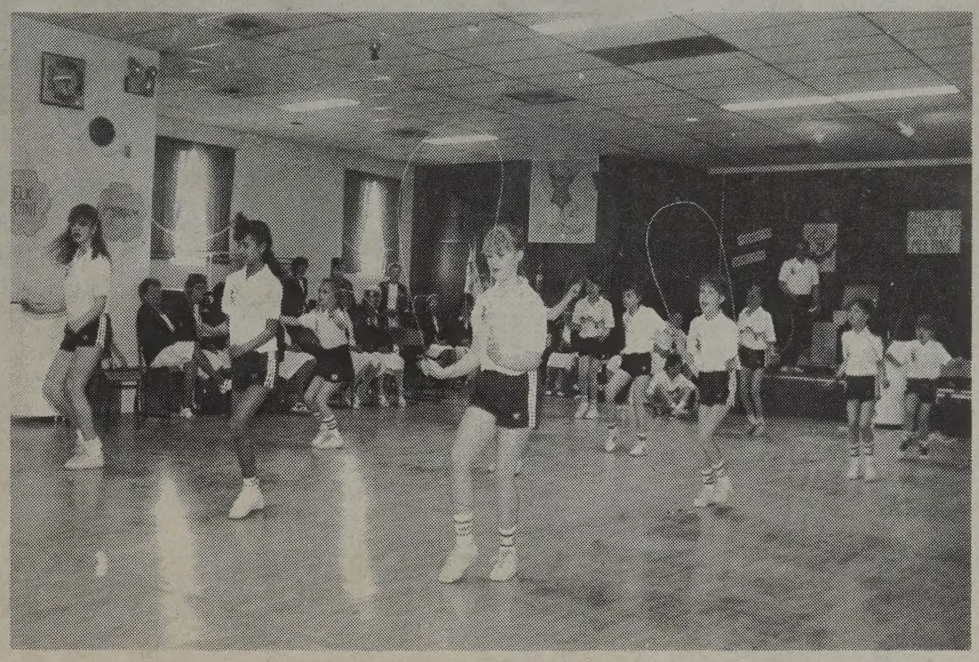
Diana Anderson, D. of N. will offer an "In-Service" seminar, for those interested, on patient visiting. There are important "Dos" and "Don'ts" which should be observed by those visiting the ill. This program, from one who knows, will help prevent thoughtless or embarrassing faux pas by persons who only want to help or be kind.

The next regular meeting will be April 24, but come early - at 7:00 p.m. - as there will be work to do.

It was reported that Caroline Onusko, activities director for the Extended Care patients, has photos of hospital activities, which could be compiled into a book of some interest.

Following the close of the regular meeting, the Annual Election of Executives took place, with the following list being selected: President, Gloria Lecopoy; Vice-President, Diana Anderson; Secretary, Agnes Moroziuk; Treasurer, Elsie Oryschuk; Canteen, Lois Seniuk and Violet McFadyen; Publicity, Adella Jennissen; and Phone Committee, Lois Sharek and Hughie Krucik. Annual membership fees of $2 were due and collected.

Hospital Day is May 12, when the Auxiliary will hold their annual Tea and Bake Sale. The hooked rug, presently being raffled, will be drawn for on that date.



JOLLY JUMPERS — Bonnyville's award winning Skipperoos entertained at the OORP District Meeting in Elk Point with their energetic display of skipping routines set to music.

School zone reminder

The Elk Point R.C.M.P. would like to draw your attention to the laws which apply to the school zones and playground areas.

All school zones have a 30 kilometers an hour speed limit during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. This speed limit is effect during school days; however a 30 km. per hour speed limit is in effect from 8:30 a.m. to one hour after sundown every day of the year in a playground area.

It is an offence to pass a vehicle moving in the same direction in a school zone or playground zone.
